

Michigan Distinguished Authors' Series	Presentation Dates
Jim Hopp, local author, two new releases: “Echoes from the Sunrise Side, Part II” and “Harry: The Life and Times of Harry Grambau” Presentation at the Rogers City Library Branch at noon; Constance Jordan Room	Thursday, October 13
Jonathan Rand (aka, Christopher Knight), “American Chillers” series presents his popular youth books; Book signing to follow presentation.	Wednesday, November 16
Christine Johnson, “Soaring Home” and new release, “The Matrimony Plan”; historical fiction, award-winning inspirational romance author, book signing and presentation at Rogers City, Onaway, and Grand Lake libraries	Thursday, November 3
Stacey Kimbrell, “Living Balanced” focuses on living a healthy lifestyle and well-being through non-toxic products, good nutrition, and overall healthy body at any age. Day and Evening program in January to be confirmed.	January program date TBC
Lisa A. Shiel, author, “Strange Michigan”, “Backyard Bigfoot” and more interesting phenomena. Presentation and book signing; area school visit and evening program; (Onaway and Rogers City)	Thursday, April 17
Mark Thompson, local historian and author will present the published works from the Presque Isle County Historical Museum and featured talk on the “Calcite Centennial”	Thursday, May 17
Bonnie Jo Campbell, new release, “Once Upon a River” – book discussion and signing along with her personal adventure filled life. Award winning author; spring date to be confirmed	June program TBC